Corporate Tax event draws keen interest

Businesses operating in the UAE have braced themselves for one of the most transformative changes in the business ecosystem — the introduction of the federal corporate tax system in the UAE. This marked a pivotal moment in the country's tax landscape.

Corporate Tax Decoded — an event by KT Events — gathered the financial planning and analysis (FP&A) industry to equip attendees with the knowledge and strategies needed to navigate this new landscape, ensuring compliance with regulations while optimising tax efficiency.

The event was sponsored by Crowe, Andersen UAE, Tax Gian, ACCA MIDDLE EAST, Taxation society, Uniquis, EVAS International, Al Tamimi & Company, MCA Consultants, MIC Technology SERVICES, MIC Tax Services, SBC, Tally, Intellewings, Fame Advisory and BSA.

Steven Ireland, head tax, Creation Business Consultants; Nauman Mian, chief financial officer, Bayt.com; Olena Swain, global head tax, IFFCO Group; and Fazeela Gopalani, head ACCA Middle East, at a panel highlighting the importance of upskilling in the ever-changing tax ecosystem.

Anurag Chaturvedi, chief executive officer, Andersen UAE, speaks at the event.

Chetan Mandani, auditor and tax consultant, Tax Gian, speaking on business implications of corporate tax.

Attendees got the chance to clarify their queries with the industry experts.

Rohit Kejriwal, senior manager, corporate tax, Crowe; and Zayd Khalid Maniar, international liaison partner, Crowe, speaking on the importance and implications of corporate tax implementation in the UAE.

Naveen Sharma, chairman, Taxation Society; Rajini Ravi, global head of finance operations, Inchcape Shipping; Rajiv Thakkar, audit manager, Tax Gian; Smruti Mishra, manager, financial reporting, Etisalat Services Holding; and Nimish Makvana, Senior Partner, Crowe UAE, discuss the operational readiness within the industry.

Harshita Raju, manager international tax and transfer pricing, Crowe UAE; Mithilesh Reddy, senior partner, transfer pricing, SBC Tax Consulting; Rajiv Hira, managing partner, RHMC Consultants; and Dinesh Jangid, regional managing partner, Uniquis Consultech, at a panel discussion on transfer pricing and significance for corporates.
